Benitachell, Costa Blanca North, the location Not far from from Alicante and its airport, with Benidorm and Valencia within reachable distance, Benitachell lies in the province of Alicante, Costa Blanca. It is surrounded by many towns, such as Alfaz del Pi, Benissa, Calpe, Callosa de EnsarriÃ; J, JalÃ;n and La Nucia. There are kilometers of glorious coastline with cliffs, alternating coves and beaches. Seaside luxury villa, Costa Blanca, Spain The town of Benitachell itself is inland, but the municipal boundaries include 2 Km of Mediterranean coast. The municipal area of Benitachell covers approximately 12 square kilometres, and is made up of two very different types of landscape: in the north-east, rolling terraced promontories given over to farming and in the south the coastal area, very mountainous, with high, sheer cliffs plunging down to sea coves. Today there is a rich agricultural landscape of almond groves and Muscatel grapes, with â€riu-rausâ€™ scattered here and there, traditional agricultural constructions where grapes are dried into raisins. There are also several residential developments and areas, which have given a significant boost to services and tourism. The coastline of Poble Nou de Benitachell is very dramatic, with spectacular cliffs and viewpoints from where to enjoy the finest sea views on the Costa Blanca. Nestled at the foot of the cliffs there are wonderful beaches and coves: de los Tiestos cove, el Llebeig cove and el Moraig beach. El Moraig beach is ideal for swimming and diving. On el Moraig beach itself we find the â€Cova dels Arcsâ€, an impressive cave with an underwater route inside. A strategically located municipality close to large tourist municipalities such as Teulada-Moraira and Javea, and only 90 kilometres from the city of Alicante.
